CROSS COUNTRY

Central's harriers, coached by Clarence Elbel and captained by Gene Matthews, won four meets and lost four. They placed fifth in the sectional meet and tenth in the conference. Capt. Matthews took 16th place in the state run. Meets were taken from Adams, Riley, Goshen, and Washington. LaPorte, Ft. Wayne North Side, Mishawaka, and Elkhart defeated the Bears. Team members shown above are, Bill Parks, Sam Richardson, Charles Fox, Dick Neeser, Gene Matthews, Dick Hensel, George Schilling, Steve Papay, Allen Kester, Tom Smith, and Coach Elbel.

VARSITY TENNIS

A conference championship would have been the Bears in tennis in 1948 except that they dropped one match, that to Mishawaka, 4-1. In their other six conference matches they scored a total of 29 points to their opponents' six but ended second in the conference (eastern division) behind Mishawaka. Tom Baker was named honorary captain. Don Steele, playing the No. 1 position did not lose a match. Pictured above are Jerry Smuts, Henry Kiszla, Bill Pendl, Tom Baker, Coach E. E. Barnbrook, Don Steele, Paul Rydzinski, Ray Betz, and manager Bob Hinton.

FOOTBALL QUEEN AND COURT

(Conference, Sectional, Regional, Semi-Final Champions)

A state championship just missed—a miss is as good as a mile—but in the first time since 1913 the Bear five did get right within grasping distance. After disposing of the toll strong Mishawaka five in the opening round of the sectionals Coach Primmer's boys appeared headed for the semi-finals at Purdue. There they found themselves in due time. In an afternoon game they smothered Little Brookston, only to trail a classy Frankfort five into the fourth quarter in the final game of these semi-finals. Having gained a 39-39 tie at the three-quarters mark the Bears put on a thrilling finish to nose out the Hot Dogs, 59-55.

On March 18, 95, Central followers journeyed to Indianapolis where Central, Madison, Auburn, and Jasper gathered to do battle for the top high school basketball honors in Hovslerdom. In the first game of the afternoon Central opposed the highly favored Madison Cubs. The Bears were definitely off their stride in this game and that coupled with some rather shady officiating which, peculiarly always seemed to go against the Bears, left them on the short end of a 58-41 tally. Jasper, the underdogs of the tourney, carried on at night in the final game to take Madison, 62-61, and the state championship. A high light of this game was the scoring of 36 points by Madison's Dee Monroe. A huge civic demonstration greeted the Bears at the court house upon their return from Indianapolis the next afternoon.

Coach Jones' grapplers, greatly improved over last year, won two meets from each of Howe Academy, E. C. Roosevelt, E. C. Washington, Hammond Clark, Hammond Tech, one from Muncie Central and lost but one dual meet, that to Lafayette Jefferson, 22-16. Central placed second in the state meet behind Bloomington, scoring two championships, Howard Fisher in the 95-pound class and Harold Bratton, 112 pounds. Howard Fisher, Jerry Seach, Don Hager, and Dick Barnhart were conference champions as the Bears took conference honors on February 12 at East Chicago. Pat Ferraro, Harold Bratton, Bob Wade, Bob Fisher, and Jim Boochee took second places in the conference meet. Bob Fisher was elected captain for 1949-50, replacing Roland Solander who graduates this year.

JR. HIGH BASKETBALL (City Champions)

WE WELCOME THE ATOMIC AGE

SALUTATORY
 NOLA ALLEN

It is with great pleasure that I, on behalf of the senior class, welcome Mr. Allen, members of the Board of Education, Mr. Pointer, our guest speaker, the faculty, parents, and friends on this memorable occasion. We, the members of the senior class are experiencing one of the greatest moments of our lives. The time has almost come when we will be alumni of Central High School. But as we approach graduation, which is one of the first steps towards the completion of our education, we realize that in this age of atomic energy, we are merely beginning.

We welcome the Atomic Age, but it is up to us whether there will be a future generation that will appreciate the fact that we did welcome this Age. This depends upon what we do with our opportunity of trying to repay society for showing its faith in us by making our graduation possible. May we profit by the mistakes of the past and have the guidance and foresight to choose that which is right and have the ability to follow our choice to a successful completion.

Albert Einstein laid the foundation for releasing atomic energy when he changed the concept of scientists toward matter and energy.

The possibilities of using atomic energy as a source of constructive power are great, but unfortunately, the international situation is such as to cause increased interest in the development of the more deadly atomic weapons, rather than the prompt application of atomic energy to peaceful projects. But because of its great possibilities in the fields of science, medicine, and as a source of power, we believe that its development will result in a greater and better world. It is towards this goal that we are aiming.

We have completed twelve years of schooling. Day after day we have delved into our studies, our minds absorbing impressions which have enabled us to come to decisions on pertinent issues, impressions which have etched deeply into our characters, impressions which have swayed our actions, our sentiments, even our morals. But there is need for more training in college and in the home, for when we take our place in the world, we will be relying upon our past training as a stable foundation. The people of today are lost in the maze of the complexities of life. At the present the nations are restless, but the assumption of power by clear-minded, level-headed leaders can do more to solve the problems of the present day world than another war could ever hope to do. It is to us, the graduating class of '49, that the leaders of today and tomorrow are looking in hope of finding in us that certain quality and ability which will bring about improved political and economic conditions. We, with the proper training and ideals, can make this world a far better place in which to live if atomic power plays its true role as a benefit to man.

We are going forth in the world not impressed to such a degree as formerly, but rather making impressions, determined to make our mark in the Atomic Age and fully aware of our responsibilities. We welcome the Atomic Age.

MEANING OF THE ATOMIC AGE

DAVID COQUILLARD
CLASS PRESIDENT

I am sure that you have all wondered whether the young people ever look ahead a little farther than to a good time or the next date, refusing to recognize the vicissitudes of the world about them. I hope you will believe me when I say we are very conscious of present day problems.

Business today is an ever enlarging progression first started by the industrious, freedom loving, and enterprising men who founded our nation. As we graduate from high school, we see before us a complex world whose complexity and ever changing conditions will have a great effect upon our future jobs, homes, and families. As a result of this complexity we have a life which can no longer wait for the jack-of-all-trades to do a fair job, but demands a specialist to do his task only and do it well.

Science is perhaps the largest one factor that has created this specialization. Over one hundred and fifty years ago the Industrial Revolution started the American people on a road that was to make them become the productive leaders of the world, and later the political leaders. It was American production that beat the Japanese and Germans in the Second World War. It is production and scientific progress that now finds us as leaders in such fields as aircraft, atomic energy, radar, and medicine. More important, it is this same production and scientific "know-how" that enable us to maintain and to improve our standard of living.

Naturally our living standard, manufacturing achievements, and military power do not go unnoticed, and the United States finds herself the leader of the democratic nations of the world.

This world today is split into two camps by a political schism between democracy and communism. The United States leads the western or democratic camp, while Russia leads the communistic countries of the East.

We are part of that democratic West. We are the future of the United States, and consequently of the western camp. It is for us to make the decisions that will bring about peace and prosperity. Such documents as the Atlantic Pact were drawn up for our benefit, and the future of that pact and the welfare of all freedom loving peoples of the world are our responsibility. I want you to know that we realize this responsibility is ours and we shall assume it willingly.

Thanks to scientific and industrial development the world has become so small that such words as nationalism and nationality will soon become obsolete. In this new age what formerly appeared to us as sovereign nations we now think of as merely member states in a world republic. As leaders of the democratic world we must attempt to understand and to help the people who make up these states.

The United States can no longer live in her snug shell of prosperity and good fortune, but as the leader of the democratic nations of the world she must realize the significance of her every action. We must consider these actions in the light of the effect they will have upon those who look to us for leadership. With this in mind we feel that it is important that we first erase the blemishes of our own democracy. Democracy must work here in our own country for the Negro as well as for the white, for the Jew as well as for the Catholic and Protestant, so that those looking to us will feel confident of our ability to show them the way to peace and to prosperity; and opponents of our way of life will have little to criticize.

In conclusion, let me say that though we shall someday be faced with the grave responsibilities of this nation, this atomic age is a grand time in which to be alive. American scientists will soon have atomic energy harnessed for useful and constructive purposes. Atomic energy will unquestionably give us greater comfort, a higher standard of living, and wider fields for progress similar to those made possible by the discovery and use of electricity in the past fifty years. Therefore we say that despite the responsibilities that will be ours, we are anticipating a richer, a fuller, and a more interesting life.

MY PLACE IN THE COMMUNITY

DICK DEFREEUW
VALEDICTORIAN

We are now entering a new age of human existence which is called the Atomic Age. As we enter this new age, one should begin to consider his duties and obligations to the community.

Because of the tremendous responsibility that is being placed on the individual of today, my most important duty is to become a good citizen in order to prepare myself for future leadership. To become a good citizen, it is my obligation unselfishly to put the community before myself. I can do this by attending civic meetings, participating in local activities, obeying city ordinances, and by trying in every way possible to make my city a better place in which to live. It is also my obligation to help the needy by donating to such organizations as the Red Cross, the Community Chest, and various other groups engaged in social service. My duty also is to contribute to the upbuilding of religion. I can raise the economic status of the community by getting a higher education so I can secure a good job in order to become financially stable.

The most important thing that is needed in the city is unity, and unity certainly cannot exist if there are petty prejudices present. Racial, social and religious prejudices are inexcusable and may tend to disunite a city or any governmental federation. It is therefore my duty to break down these prejudices.

The individual himself is the most important part of an organization of any kind. It could not exist without him because of the significant role that he plays. Therefore it is up to all of us as individuals to construct a peaceful and lasting unity in the community in which we live.

MY PLACE AS A CITIZEN OF THE WORLD

JANE MACLEAN
VALEDICTORIAN

Too many of us are prone to think of the world in terms of our own daily existence, in terms of our own friends, experiences, problems, and needs. By the term world, I mean the many different peoples who live on the earth, and the different customs and beliefs which they hold. Such instruments of modern living as the airplane and the radio have brought us increasingly close to people in other parts of the world, but it is only recently that the real importance of the world and its people to our own way of living has been brought home to us in a forceful and somewhat shattering manner. The increasing importance of the atomic age has and will continue to bring people from the petty oblivion of their own lives with ever-increasing rapidity. The atomic age is primarily an age of big things, and it demands big people to live in it. We must awaken from our snug and self-satisfied shell, or the world, as we know it, will come tumbling down about our ears.

We must stop thinking of ourselves as citizens of a certain city, a certain state, or even of a certain country; we must begin to think of ourselves as citizens of the world. In this position we must overcome our selfish greed, our intolerance and misunderstanding, and our attitude of "me-first." We must adopt a broader and more understanding viewpoint towards the needs, education, philosophies, and religions of others. We should not allow others to run over us; on the contrary, we should insist upon those rights and privileges which are due to citizens of the world. If we believe that democracy is the best form of government, it is up to us to prove it, not by force, but by education and by our own example.

Atomic energy can be a great force for construction or destruction; it is obviously necessary that it be used for constructive purposes. This can be accomplished only by a people who think and act as world citizens. It is up to the youth of this country, it is up to us, to prove that it can be done.

IS IT WORTH IT?

JACKIE DESLAURIERS

VALEDICTORIAN

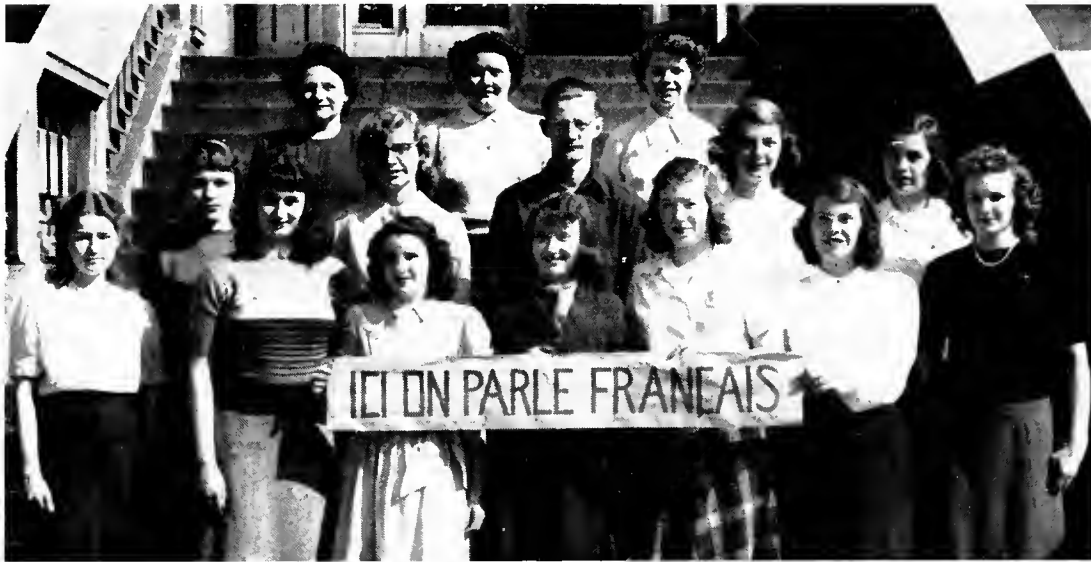

When I asked several people the question, "Is the Atomic Age worth while?" I received some interesting replies. The one I am going to pass on to you is this: "The Atomic Age is worth while because it presents us with a new form of power which is better than any we have ever had before, and people are always interested in something new."

This reply has a pertinent point, mainly, that atomic energy is a new source of power, and anyone who disagrees with the worthiness of progress is seated on the extreme right of any political body.

Since man now has a new form of power, he is very interested in seeing what he can do with it. If he is mature in his thinking, he will probably use his new power in a very humane fashion. If he uses it conversely, it will be unfortunate. But still we shall not be able to say that atomic power is not worth while because of what man does with it. Going back through the ages to when man first came upon fire—another form of energy—I dare say there were many men who were burned before they learned how to control fire. But I doubt whether any of you would say that fire is an unworthy type of energy and should be destroyed. Cars may be used as another example. Because there are some reckless drivers and other forces which cause injury, not many of us are going to to call that vehicle unworthy and give up riding in it. But yet, that is the precise sentiment many of our grand parents held toward the automobile when first it made its appearance. We are not always in a position to judge the worth of a movement or force. We exist such a comparatively short time, that we often do not gain the proper perspective. This keeps man in the dark most of the time.

Therefore we can say from the experience of those who have preceded us that the Atomic Age assuredly will be worth any effort demanded of us and we are ready to devote our energies to its development.
